COMES NOW Robert Henderson U. S. PROBATION OFFICER OF THE COURT presenting an official report upon the conduct and attitude of Rashon Mitchell who was placed on supervised release by the Honorable Paul S. Diamond sitting in the Court at Philadelphia, PA, on the 10th day of August, 2010 who fixed the period of supervision at three years, and imposed the general terms and conditions theretofore adopted by the Court and also imposed special conditions and terms as follows:

ORIGINAL OFFENSE: Bank robbery (Counts One, Three, Four, Six and Seven) and attempted bank robbery (Counts Two and Five)

ORIGINAL SENTENCE: Custody of the U.S. Bureau of Prisons for a total term of 63 months on each of Counts One through Seven to be served concurrently, followed by three years of supervised release with a $700 special assessment.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS:

- 1) The defendant shall refrain from the illegal possession and/or use of drugs and shall submit to urinalysis or other forms of testing to ensure compliance. It is further ordered that the defendant shall submit to evaluation and drug treatment as approved by the U. S Probation Office. The defendant shall abide by the rules of any programs and shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the Court; 2) The defendant shall provide the U.S. Probation Office with full disclosure of his financial records to include yearly income tax returns upon request. The defendant shall cooperate with the probation officer in the investigation of his financial dealings and shall provide truthful monthly statements of his income; 3) The defendant is prohibited from incurring any new credit charges or opening additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer, unless the defendant is in compliance with a payment schedule for any fine or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court. The defendant shall not encumber or liquidate interest in any assets unless it is in direct service of the fine or restitution obligation or otherwise has the express approval of the Court; 4) The defendant shall participate in a mental health program for evaluation and/or treatment as approved by the Court after receiving a recommendation by the U.S. Probation Office. The defendant shall remain in treatment until satisfactorily discharged with the approval of the Court; and 5) Payment of the restitution in the amount of $10,534.47 is a condition of supervised release and the defendant shall satisfy the amount due in monthly installments of not less than $100.00.

DATE SUPERVISION

COMMENCED: May 6, 2014.

The above probation officer has reason to believe that the supervised releasee has violated the terms and conditions of his supervision under such circumstances as may warrant revocation. These conditions are:

- A. General Condition: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

On April 9, 2015, a warrant for arrest was issued by the Honorable Marilyn Heffley, U.S. Magistrate Judge in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania. The warrant was issued because the defendant allegedly robbed a bank on February 28, 2015.

According to the Affidavit, the defendant entered the Republic Bank (1601 Market Street Philadelphia, PA) on February 28, 2015 at approximately 1:30 p.m. He approached a bank teller and produced a note that read "Just give me 3 grand and no one gets hurt." The bank teller gave the defendant $913.00 and a dye pack. At that time, the defendant left the bank. Shortly after leaving the bank, the dye pack exploded, and the defendant discarded it, while fleeing westbound on Market Street.

GRADE OF VIOLATION

- B. General Condition: The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime.

The defendant is suspected of committing a bank robbery on April 9, 2015, where he allegedly walked into a T. D. Bank (3735 Walnut Street Philadelphia, PA), produced a demand note and left with $619.00.
